

Islip, NY – Islip Town Clerk Regina Duffy (right) and Reverend Mary Elberfeld, founder of Women of Substance, recently hosted the first in a series of Domestic Violence Awareness workshops at Islip Town Hall.

The workshop is part of a year-long awareness campaign called “Hearing the Silent Cry,” designed to educate and empower the women of Islip Town. The campaign will include a series of educational workshops, seminars, a poster and flier campaign, and referral services.
